ADVERTISING AND MARKETING SERVICES AGREEMENT

Independent agreement for Open Shop paid advertising | Proposed rate card for business confirmation and legal review.

This agreement is between the Open Shop contracting entity identified below (Open Shop) and the advertiser identified below (Advertiser). It is independent of any seller partnership agreement. A seller who does not purchase advertising owes no fees under this agreement. Complete and approve the campaign schedule before signing.

2. Selected advertising services and proposed rates

The rate card below is based on planning estimates in the Open Shop business plan and must be confirmed in the signed campaign schedule before execution. All amounts are Rwandan francs. Placements will be labeled as sponsored.

Full placement bundle	RWF 350,000 / month
Selected monthly placement subtotal	RWF 350,000 / month
3-month placement commitment	RWF 1,050,000
Sponsored short videos	0 x RWF 75,000 = RWF 0
Hosted 30-minute live features	0 x RWF 120,000 = RWF 0
TOTAL AGREED CAMPAIGN PRICE	RWF 1,050,000

Proposed monthly placements: Homepage top banner RWF 150,000; homepage left-side banner RWF 90,000; homepage right-side banner RWF 90,000; product-grid card RWF 60,000; product-detail card RWF 50,000. Full-placement bundle (all five positions) RWF 350,000 per month. Individual placement prices total RWF 440,000 per month. Proposed social services: short sponsored video RWF 75,000 each; hosted 30-minute live feature RWF 120,000 each. Travel, media spend, external creators, production expenses and other costs are excluded unless included in a signed quotation.

3. Commitment, billing, start and renewal

Advertiser commits to at least three consecutive months of the selected service. The standard placement value is RWF 350,000 per month x 3 months = RWF 1,050,000, payable as RWF 1,050,000. Add approved per-item social services and written extra costs. Invoices are payable monthly in advance by the deadline in the campaign schedule. A longer term must be stated in writing.

Campaign delivery starts only after the required payment is received and Open Shop approves the creative. Renewal requires written agreement and confirmation of then-current rates; no automatic renewal applies unless expressly agreed. Early termination does not by itself remove payment obligations for the committed term. The parties must have a Rwandan lawyer review enforceability, exceptions and remedies before signature.

4. Creative, delivery and reporting

1. Advertiser will provide accurate claims and creative that it owns or is authorized to use, including required consents for marks, music, images and identifiable people. Advertiser is responsible for substantiating claims and securing any required permits.

2. Open Shop will deliver the selected placement and approved creative during the campaign dates, subject to technical availability, platform policies and applicable law. Every paid placement will be clearly identified as sponsored. Placement is not endorsement, certification, product-quality verification, or a guarantee of impressions, views, clicks, inquiries, conversions or sales.

3. Open Shop will provide a campaign summary of dates and available metrics such as views, clicks, attributed inquiries and orders where measurable. Measurement methods and attribution depend on available systems; the current application does not store order attribution or payment records.

4. Advertiser must not submit illegal, misleading, unsafe, counterfeit, infringing or otherwise prohibited advertising. Open Shop may reject, pause or remove non-compliant creative or campaigns, and will explain the issue where practicable. Advertiser will cooperate on corrections. Any revisions, creative deadlines, campaign changes, category exclusivity or additional deliverables must be stated in the schedule.

5. Category exclusivity is not included unless separately agreed in writing. Open Shop does not warrant continuous, uninterrupted placement; for a material technical interruption within Open Shop's control, the parties will agree a reasonable make-good extension or prorated credit for undelivered service days, where practicable.

5. Cancellation, suspension, refunds and costs

Either party may request a campaign change or cancellation in writing. Any unused prepaid days will be rescheduled or credited by written agreement if Open Shop cannot deliver them, except where the interruption results from Advertiser's non-compliant materials, failure to provide creative, or breach. For advertiser cancellation, prepaid fees for the committed period are not automatically refundable, subject to mandatory law and any written exception. Open Shop may suspend delivery for overdue payment, unlawful content or a material breach and will notify Advertiser where practicable. The parties should confirm refund treatment, taxes and termination remedies with legal and accounting advisers before signing.

6. Data, rights and confidentiality

Each party retains its pre-existing intellectual property. Advertiser grants Open Shop a limited, non-exclusive permission to use approved creative and marks to deliver and report this campaign during the term and for a reasonable recordkeeping period. Open Shop may not use Advertiser's mark in unrelated endorsements or case studies without separate consent. Each party will protect confidential campaign information and handle personal data only for campaign delivery, reporting, legal compliance or another disclosed lawful purpose, with reasonable safeguards.

7. Disputes, general terms and signatures

The parties will first refer a dispute to designated representatives for good-faith discussion. Any governing law, venue or alternative dispute process must be confirmed by a qualified Rwandan lawyer. Changes must be written and signed by both parties. This agreement governs only the selected advertising services and does not amend a seller listing agreement unless a signed addendum expressly says so.
