2. Marketplace relationship and selected commercial plan

Open Shop operates a marketplace that helps customers discover approved listings and contact or place trackable orders with independent sellers. Unless a separate written agreement says otherwise, Open Shop is not the seller of the goods or services, does not take ownership of stock, and does not fulfill orders. Seller remains responsible for the products or services, customer obligations, lawful sale, fulfillment and agreed delivery arrangements.

SELECTED PLAN: 5% COMMISSION PLAN

5% commission plan	SELECTED
Fixed listing subscription	NOT SELECTED
Commission pricing	5% of eligible completed-sale subtotal after discounts; delivery and taxes excluded.
Subscription pricing	RWF 50,000 monthly; RWF 600,000 across 12 monthly payments; RWF 500,000 for 12 months prepaid (RWF 100,000 saving).

Commission: 5% of eligible completed-sale product or service subtotal after discounts, excluding delivery charges and taxes. No commission is due on cancelled orders or fully refunded transactions. For a partial refund, commission is recalculated on the retained eligible subtotal and any excess commission is credited or deducted from the next reconciliation. For a chargeback or disputed transaction, the amount is held from settlement where practicable while reviewed; commission follows the final retained amount. No unapproved payment-processing deduction or fee may be charged. Any permitted, itemized processor deduction must be disclosed in writing before the transaction.

Open Shop will keep transaction records available to the extent supported by its systems and provide a reconciliation showing order references, item subtotal, discounts, refunds, commission and net amount due. The parties will agree the payout schedule in writing before live paid orders; until then no payout timetable or processing deduction is represented as operational. Seller must promptly raise reconciliation errors. The current application does not process live payments or seller payouts.

Only the selected plan applies. The plans cannot be combined unless a later signed addendum expressly says so. Taxes, invoicing, withholding and payment reporting must follow applicable law and be confirmed by the parties' accountant.

3. Listings, orders and seller service standards

1. Seller authorizes Open Shop to display products or services that Open Shop has approved, together with accurate descriptions, prices, product variations, availability, warranty information, delivery terms and images supplied or approved by Seller.

2. Seller warrants that it owns or is authorized to sell each listed item, that items are genuine and accurately described, and that all products, services, claims, permits and sales comply with applicable laws and Open Shop's published restrictions. Seller is responsible for product safety, quality, labeling, warranty and advertising claims.

3. Seller will keep prices and inventory current, promptly flag unavailable items, and respond to an order request within one business day. Seller is responsible for appropriate packaging, fulfillment, dispatch, customer service, and the delivery arrangements agreed for each order.

4. Seller will promptly tell the customer and Open Shop if an item cannot be supplied. Seller handles cancellations, returns, refunds, warranties, complaints and remedies for its products in accordance with applicable consumer law and the written policy shown to the customer. The parties will cooperate on a complaint without limiting a customer's statutory rights.

5. Open Shop may reject, correct, suspend or remove a listing, or suspend access, where information is inaccurate or an item appears unlawful, counterfeit, unsafe, prohibited, or likely to harm customers or the platform. Open Shop will give notice and a reasonable explanation where practicable; urgent safety or legal concerns may require immediate action.

4. Photography, content and intellectual property

Photography is available only to sellers selected for and agreeing to participate in the photography program, subject to mutual agreement, scheduling and capacity. Any photography, editing, travel or production fee must be agreed in writing before work starts. Seller will make agreed products available at the agreed time and place. The parties will record handover, condition and return of valuable items and agree responsibility for loss or damage before custody changes.

Seller retains ownership of its marks and submitted materials and confirms it has the rights and permissions needed to provide them. Seller grants Open Shop a non-exclusive, royalty-free permission during the listing and reasonable wind-down period to host, reproduce, resize and display approved product images, videos, descriptions and marks solely to list, promote and market Seller's products on Open Shop's website and authorized marketing channels. Seller may withdraw future use on reasonable written notice, subject to removal from materials already printed or distributed and lawful archival records.

Use of Seller's premises, broader brand endorsements, or identifiable staff, customers or other individuals requires prior appropriate permission. Seller must provide clear, original images meeting Open Shop's listing standards when photography is not provided. Each party retains its pre-existing intellectual property.

5. Optional seller collaboration permissions

Each permission is separate. Mark one choice on every line; no choice is implied from signing. Any specific session, placement, cost or campaign still requires written confirmation.

In-store live selling / filming	[ACCEPTED / DECLINED]

Promotional materials in Seller's shop	[ACCEPTED / DECLINED]
Seller-created coupon codes	[ACCEPTED / DECLINED]
Seller advertising with Open Shop	[ACCEPTED / DECLINED]

Live selling: any session requires agreed date, access, featured products, filming boundaries, staff consent, cancellation rules and approved production costs. Shop materials: parties will agree placement, duration, installation, maintenance, removal and costs. Coupon codes: each approved code must record its validity, eligible products, limits, stacking rules and funder. Seller-funded discounts reduce the eligible subtotal before commission; Open Shop-funded discounts are funded by Open Shop and are not deducted from Seller's proceeds. Advertising is optional and creates no purchase obligation under this agreement; paid advertising is governed only by a separate signed Advertising and Marketing Services Agreement.

6. Customer information and confidentiality

Each party will use customer or business contact information only to perform this agreement, fulfill an order, provide requested service, meet legal obligations or another lawful purpose disclosed to the individual. Seller must protect information, limit access to people who need it, use reasonable security, avoid unrelated marketing without a lawful basis, and promptly notify Open Shop of a suspected disclosure or misuse. Each party will comply with applicable data protection and privacy obligations. Confidential non-public business information may be used only for this relationship and must be protected with reasonable care.

7. Term, suspension, termination and disputes

This agreement starts on the effective date and continues for the term stated in the party details. Either party may terminate on [NOTICE PERIOD] written days' notice. A party may suspend affected activity or terminate for material breach not remedied within [CURE PERIOD] days after written notice, or immediately where required for safety, fraud or law. Termination does not waive accrued payment, reconciliation, customer remedy, confidentiality, data protection or intellectual-property obligations. Open Shop will remove listings within a reasonable operational period, subject to outstanding orders and legal records.

The parties will first refer a dispute to designated representatives for good-faith discussion. If unresolved within [DISCUSSION PERIOD] days, either party may pursue remedies available under the applicable law. Governing law and any court or alternative dispute forum must be confirmed by a qualified Rwandan lawyer before signature. Nothing in this agreement limits mandatory consumer rights.

8. General terms and signatures

Changes must be in writing and signed by both parties. If any term is invalid, the remaining terms continue to the extent permitted by law. This document and any signed schedules are the complete agreement on seller listing services. It does not create a partnership, employment, agency, or authority for either party to bind the other. The parties confirm they had the opportunity to obtain independent legal and tax advice.
